

TAKE ME HOME

Believe Bigger, Aim Higher

Friday 29th June 2018

Mrs. R Medley
Headteacher

Mr. C Eaglestone
Deputy Head

Mrs. A Jones
Assistant Head/SEN

I look forward to seeing you all tomorrow at the Summer Fair (12:00- 15:00) I would like to take this opportunity to thank Miss Oliver, Mrs Jones and the PTA for all their hard work to make this happen. Their dedication brings the children of Bayards lots of benefits. If you would like to get involved in future events or could spare some time to help out in some way, please speak to Miss Oliver.

Today, some Year 5 children took part in a Maths Challenge Day with children from other local schools. Thank you to Mrs Fiddaman for organising this fantastic event for the children in the partnership. Today, you should have received your child's report: if you wish to discuss any of the report further, please make an appointment with your child's class teacher. The report includes information about which teacher your child will have next year. Next Thursday and Friday they will be taught by their new teacher to ensure the transition from one year to another is as smooth as possible.

I would like to remind all children to take care when walking to school. It has been brought to my attention that some children haven't been crossing Waynefleete Road sensibly.

Please make an extra effort over the last few weeks to get to school on time. This week there were 67 lates! This has a negative impact on children's attendance and subsequently progress and attainment.

I hope you all have an enjoyable weekend.

Best wishes

Mr. Eaglestone

TEACHING AND LEARNING

On Friday, Year 4 visited the Look Out Discovery Centre to delve deeper into the practical side of Year 4 Science. We investigated the local woodland on a 'Bugs and Beasties' hunt and took part in various practical experiments involving: sound and light, the human body, forces and natural habitats. We even managed to squeeze in time to climb a 100-foot tower to discover how gravity is affected by height. Well done scientists!

Miss Armstrong

MEET THE STAFF - Miss Henderson

I recently graduated as a Biologist at the University of Chester and went on to pursue my life goal of becoming a primary school teacher at home in Greater Manchester. The move to Oxford has so far been a great decision. My short time at Bayards has been fun and I'm looking forward to teaching in September. This summer, I am planning on soaking up lots of sunshine and spending time with my friends and family.

ROAD SAFETY

By setting a good example you can ensure your child remains safe and develops road and traffic awareness. You might also want to follow these simple tips when crossing the road with your child.

On the pavement...

When walking near a road it is a good idea to:

- hold your child's hand - don't let them run ahead
- look out for and encourage your child to be aware of hidden entrances or driveways crossing the pavement
- put reins on a younger child if they're not strapped in a pushchair
- make sure your child walks on the side of the pavement away from the traffic
- It can be hard for motorists to see small children, especially when they are reversing, so take extra care.
- Never let your child go near a road alone or even with an older child. Children are generally not ready to cross roads on their own until they are at least eight years old - and many will not be ready even then.

Crossing the road...

When the time comes to teach your child about crossing the road, remember the following:

- always set a good example by choosing a safe place to cross and explaining what you're doing
- let your child help you decide where and when it's safe to cross
- tell your child that it's safest to cross at a pedestrian crossing or a crossing patrol
- tell your child not to cross where they can't see far along the road
- explain that they should not try to cross a road between parked cars; drivers won't be able to see them very well and the cars might start moving
- use the Green Cross Code with your child; explain that you have to stop at the kerb, then look both ways and listen for traffic before crossing
- when it's safe to cross, walk straight across the road and keep looking and listening out for traffic
- remind your children to concentrate - they may be easily distracted, forget what they have been taught and dash out into the road

- make sure that anyone else looking after your child follows the same road safety rules that you do

Pedestrian crossings...

You might feel that pedestrian crossings are safe, but they can still be dangerous for children if they don't take care. Remember to:

- explain that pedestrians have to wait on the pavement until all the traffic coming from both directions has stopped - only then is it safe to cross
- explain that if there is an island in the middle of the road, your child should treat each half of the crossing as a separate crossing
- tell your child it's important to keep looking and listening while crossing, in case a driver has not seen them
- warn your child to watch for cyclists or motorcyclists who might not have seen them
- make sure your child can be seen easily; bright or fluorescent clothes are best during the day and reflective materials work well at night
- always use a zebra or light-controlled crossing, or a school crossing patrol, if there is one
