Take Me Home Newsletter 17— 22nd February 2018

Dear Parents/Carers

There are some very exciting things happening at Bayards Hill during this term.

Book Week is from 26th February to 2nd March; we have author Ian Whybrow visiting school to talk about his work and run short workshops.

On Wednesday 28th February we have real live dinosaurs coming in to meet the children. We are asking for a small contribution of £2.00 per child to help cover the cost and for another £1 children can have their photo taken with a dinosaur.

World Book Day is on Thursday 1st March—children can come to school dressed as their favourite book character—we can't wait to see them all.

Classes will also be taking part in a class reading race and solving mysteries through poetry. On Friday 2nd March we would like to invite parents/carers to an assembly where children will be sharing the work they have completed during Book Week.

Tickets are now on sale for the PTA Bingo and Film Night on Friday 2nd March; the film this time is The Emoji Movie.

Please look out for mid-term reports and curriculum documents going home today with children.
